Rotator Cuff Disease – Treatment Rationale

Harjeet Singh Puran Singh

Columbia Asia Hospital Bukit Rimau, Malaysia

This presentation outlines the relevant surgical anatomy, physiology, pathoanotomy and parthophysiology towards understanding the current concepts in treatment of rotator cuff disease both via surgical and non-surgical methods. The aim is to build a base for the subsequent expert presentations on modalities of care.