Arthroscopy of the elbow can be daunting. However if the preparation and planning is done usually it is not that difficult. This presentation will discuss on the authors’ preferred technique for arthroscopy of the elbow. The indication, surgical anatomy, portal placement, theatre setup and standard portal making will be highlighted.