

DR MAIZATUL JAMNY MAHMOOD

Clinical Radiologist, Radiology Department, Hospital Kuala Lumpur

Dr Maizatul Jamny Mahmood is a clinical radiologist currently working in the Radiology Department of Hospital Kuala Lumpur (HKL). She obtained her MBBS from St Mary's Hospital Medical School, Imperial College, University of London and subsequently her Masters in Medicine (Radiology) from National University of Malaysia. This was later followed by fellowship training in musculoskeletal radiology (MSK) in HKL, National University of Malaysia and Klinikum Augsburg, Germany.

Her vast working experience as an MSK radiologist covered both east and west Malaysia. She oversees the MSK radiology list and reports in-house images and from other referring hospitals. The other main responsibility is planning and executing the training programme for MSK radiology fellows from the Ministry of Health Malaysia. Her other career accomplishments span from involvement in several MSK related researches, preparation of multiple posters to being an established speaker / facilitator in MSK radiology workshops and training courses.

Part of her non clinical responsibilities include being the coordinator for Fire and Safety Unit and the Credentialing and privileging team for the Radiology Department HKL .

Outside official duties, she is an active and a council member for the College of Radiology Malaysia, while maintaining a life membership of the European Congress of Radiology, Alumni of Imperial College (UK) and Post Graduate Society HKL.